

Emilia Layered Necklace in Silver

Project N813

Julie Bean

Create a layered necklace look using round sequin connector chain, gemstone chain, and rolo chain. All three chains are connected at the back of the necklace using pretty strand reducers. The final touch is a little Om charm hanging from the longest necklace chain.

Instructions

Note that the chain extender lets you adjust the length of this necklace.

1. To make this triple strand necklace, please watch the video: Beadaholique Live Class: Stacking and Layering Jewelry.
2. In this course of the live event, Beadaholique designer Julie Bean creates this necklace from start to finish. You will learn how to cut gemstone chain, open and close jump rings, use strand reducers, attach all the chains together, and how to add a necklace extender.
