Instructions

1. Before you begin this project please watch our video How to Do 2 Drop Flat Even Peyote and How to Flat Odd Count Peyote Seed.
2. From what you learned in the videos, cut off a length of thread that you are comfortable working with. As you work you will need to tie off and add new thread. Thread a needle.
3. This bangle is an odd count two drop peyote so it will combine using two beads per stitch and doing the odd count turn around. Follow along with the pattern. The outer color is matte white, then working in is the aqua mist lined crystal, matte opaque turquoise, and the center is silver lined caribbean teal.
4. Stitch the two drop odd count peyote until it fits in the channel snugly. Once you get the right length to go all the way around you will zip up the ends. Make sure the "teeth" of the beads line up. Please watch our video, How to Zip Up Peyote Stitch with a Seamless Join to see how to do this technique.
5. Trim off and weave in your threads using a thread zap or snips.
