

The Firestorm Cuff

Project B652

Designer: Julie Bean

The enchantment patina on the Lillypilly copper sheet used for this project looks like raging copper flames during a firestorm. When the copper sheet is applied to the wide brass cuff, the result is a dramatic and captivating bracelet.

Instructions

Note: you will also need a ruler, pen, and several rubber bands or hair bands for this project.

1. To start this project, please watch the video: How to Cover a Brass Cuff in Lillypilly Copper Sheets.
2. From what you learned in the video, measure and cut your Lillypilly rectangle so that it is 1.5" wide.
3. Now adhere your copper sheet to your brass cuff using E6000 glue as shown in the video.
4. Place the bands over the cuff to hold the copper sheet in place. Let dry.
5. Remove the bands and trim your copper ends as need be as shown in the video.
6. All done!
