Instructions

These instructions will make a 6 inch quadruple wrap bracelet or an 8 1/2 inch triple wrap bracelet. To adjust the length of the bracelet, add or subtract the number of beaded rows you weave, or add extra button closure loops on the end with your leather cord.

1. To begin, please watch our video on how to make a triple wrap bracelet using the Wrapit Loom. In this video you'll see how to attach the track of the original Wrapit Loom to the two tracks of the Wrapit Loom Professional Series Duo, and how to size, set up and start weaving your bracelet.
2. While weaving this bracelet, you will have to add two new cards of Griffin Silk thread. Please watch our video on how to add additional thread to a bracelet on the Wrapit Loom to see how.
3. To start your bracelet, weave your first row with 1 magenta Delica. Then weave your second row with 2 magenta Delicas.
4. Follow pattern A for approximately 5 inches (about 4 1/2 repetitions). Then weave 10 rows consisting of 1 silver fire polished bead.
5. Follow pattern B for approximately 5 inches (about 5 1/2 repetitions). Then weave 10 rows consisting of 1 silver fire polished bead. During this section of fire polished beads is a good place to tie off and add new Griffin Silk to your bracelet.
6. Follow pattern C for approximately 5 inches (about 6 1/2 repetitions). Then weave 10 rows consisting of 1 silver fire polished bead.
7. Follow pattern D for approximately 5 1/2 inches (about 7 1/2 repetitions).
8. To end your bracelet, weave one row with 2 turquoise Delicas. Then weave the last row with 1 silver Delica.
9. Tie off and knot your Griffin Silk as shown in the video, and add glue to your knots. Wrap the bracelet around your wrist, and enjoy!
