1. Place a 4mm neon yellow crystal round faux pearl onto a 1" silver plated eye pin and create a simple wire loop.
2. Repeat twice more and then twice with neon orange faux pearls.
3. Remove the included jump ring on a hand painted hot pink resin owl charm.
4. Using the loops on the ends of the pearl segments, attach one yellow to the owl charm, then one orange to the yellow, then a second orange, and finally the third yellow. You should end up with the owl charm and then five pearl segments of alternating colors.
5. Use the jump ring that came with your charm to hang the top pearl segment from a silver tone metal book mark.
