1. Take one eye pin and string on one bicone bead. Make a simple wire loop. Set aside. Repeat this step twice more.
2. Open one jump ring and attach one spike pendant to one of the simple wire loop components from the previous step. Close the jump ring.
3. Move to the other side of the simple wire loop component, and attach a second simple wire loop component, same as you would a jump ring.
4. Move to the other side of the simple wire loop component, and attach the third simple wire loop component, same as you would a jump ring.
5. Move to the other side of the simple wire loop component, and attach the earring hook by opening and closing the loop, same as you would a jump ring.
