Instructions:

1. Begin by cutting two lengths of chain at approximately eight and a half inches long each. Note: The total length of the necklace is twenty one inches. You may shorten or lengthen your chain depending on what length you would like your necklace to be.
2. Open both of the larger jump rings and add them to the last link of each piece of chain.
3. Now thread the jump rings through the two outermost loops in the design of the brass art nouveau stamping. Close jump rings once again.
4. Open the small jump ring and use it to connect the lobster clasp to the last link of one of the pieces of chain.
