

Brighton Locket

Project N685
Designer: Julie Bean

Such a pretty accessory, this locket can hold a photo of your loved one, a pressed flower, or another small memento. The outside of the locket has been decorated with collage art, Crystal Clay, and beautiful SWAROVSKI ELEMENTS crystal chatons. This would make a lovely gift.

Please note, the clasp originally used in this project (and pictured) is no longer available. Another clasp has been chosen by our designers and substituted in the supplies list.

Instructions:

1. The making of this locket is shown from start to finish in the video: How to Make a Mixed Media Collage Art Locket
2. Please watch the video and make the locket as shown.
3. Thread one end of your chain through the locket's bail.
4. The chain itself consists of numerous open link that can be used just like jump rings. Open the end link and connect it to the loop on your toggle bar. Close the link back up. Go to the other side of your chain and repeat this step with the other half of your clasp.
5. All done!
