Instructions

You will also need a fine paint brush for this project.

1. Put a dab of patina on a piece of scrap paper.
2. Take your paint brush and dip it into patina and begin to paint only the edges of the lucite rose. Tip: start from the inner most petal and work your way out. See photo.
3. Do not wipe off the patina. Let it dry before continuing.
4. Use the Crafters Pick glue adhesive on the back of the rose cabochon and glue it to the black velour backing.
5. Once the glue has dried, use sharp scissors to cut out the velour backing along the edges of the rose.

6. Using E6000 place a dab of glue on the ring finding and place it on the center back of the finished rose cabochon.
